

AGRICULTURAL BIOLOGY COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Attn: Chuck Harp (Research Associate II)
C. P. Gillette Museum of Arthropod Diversity
Colorado State University
Department of Agricultural Biology
1177H Campus Delivery
Fort Collins, Colorado 80523 USA
chuck.harp@colostate.edu
970-491-7419

Authorization by Museum

Director _____ Date _____

Invoice of Specimens

Please Sign and Return One Copy

Loaned to: Name _____

Institution: _____

Address: _____

These specimens have been sent as:

A Gift _____ Exchange _____ Loan at Your Request _____ For Examination at your Request _____ Return of Borrowed Material _____ For Determination at Our Request _____ Return of Material sent for Identification _____

Method of Shipment _____

Value _____

Sent by _____

Description of Objects, list family, genus, species, and quantities

Condition of specimens when Received _____

Loan Made for a Period of 120 Days Unless Renewed. Date for Return _____

Policies Regarding Loans:

- 1) All Holotypes based on material loaned from this department should be deposited in the U.S. National Museum.
- 2) Retention of material is permitted only on arrangement with our Curators.
- 3) Exchanges of specimens are encouraged.
- 4) A determination label should be put on each specimen, if possible.
- 5) This department would appreciate receiving copies of a publication resulting from study of this material.
- 6) Other conditions for loan _____

Encompassing Entomology, Plant Pathology, and Weed Science

Phone (970) 491-5261 <https://agsci.colostate.edu/agbio/gillette-museum/> FAX (970) 491-3862