

2026 Pesticide Regulatory Education Program

Course	Date & Location	Target Audience	Course Goal	Nomination & Acceptance Dates
New and Emerging Technology	June 22-25, 2026 Fort Collins, CO	Personnel who work under a FIFRA cooperative agreement.	To share the benefits and challenges of new and emerging technologies as they relate to pesticide program management and enforcement.	Open: February 12, 2026 Close: March 12, 2026 Acceptance: March 26, 2026
Non-Agricultural Pest Control Issues (Tentative)	August 3-6, 2026 Fort Collins, CO or Decatur, GA	Personnel who work under a FIFRA cooperative agreement with responsibilities for regulating and enforcing pesticide use in, on, and adjacent to structures.	To enhance a participant's ability to meet the present challenges of communicating, regulating, and enforcing pesticide use in, on, and adjacent to structures.	Open: April 10, 2026 Close: May 7, 2026 Acceptance: May 14, 2026
Endangered Species Combo	September 21-24, 2026 Fort Collins, CO	Personnel that work under a FIFRA cooperative agreement involved in pesticide label review and/or programmatic activities related to enforcing labels. A group of participants with diverse experiences is expected.	To understand the Endangered Species Act (ESA), its implementation in the pesticide registration process, and how it impacts pesticide compliance and enforcement.	Open: May 21, 2026 Close: June 18, 2026 Acceptance: July 2, 2026